Swine Flu jab

THE SWINE Flu jab will be offered to children under the age of five within the next few weeks.

Parents of youngsters under that age will be sent a letter in the post, inviting them to be vaccinated.

Swine Flu may leave children more vulnerable to other illnesses, which may result in hospitalisation.

For more information about Swine Flu, visit www.mhra.gov.uk/swineflu

Service award

SOUTHEND Council's Youth Offending Service has been shortlisted for an award.

It was picked in the Children's Services category for the prestigious awards run by the Local Government Chronicle (LGC) having recorded a 24.28 per cent drop in reports of youth anti-social behaviour between April and October.

The service will now give a presentation to the judging panel on January 28, with the winners announced in March.

Boat rescue

FIREFIGHTERS rescued 112 people who were trapped on the HMS Wilton on Sunday, December 20.

Visitors were enjoying the Essex Yacht Club's Christmas lunch at its headquarters' boat, in Leigh, when the gangway moved, leaving it in too dangerous a position to be used.

Two crews from Leigh Fire Station used a winch to secure the gangway before helping revellers to safety.

SPEED: Councillor Norman Hume at the launch of the A127's speed cameras.

JANUARY

IN JANUARY, it was announced that an historic churchyard was to be restored to its former glory with more than £200,000.

The plans for St John's, in Church Road, Southend, included the development of a circular walk between gravestones and a new opening to the courtyard.

Reverend Stephen Burdett was delighted.

He said: "I am in full support of the plans, which will help safeguard this valuable heritage site for the people of Southend."

The churchyard is the last resting place of the borough's first mayor, Thomas Dowsett, and a memorial site to novelist Warwick Deeping, poet Robert Buchanan and many of the town's most notable families.

■ New speed limits were put in place on one of Essex's busiest roads.

Essex County Council launched the 50mph limit on the A127 between Southend and the Dick Turpin pub, Nevendon, but admitted the speed averaging cameras were still 'being calibrated'.

The scheme uses a series of cameras which, when working, can track cars and work out the speed they travel over a particular distance, regardless of whether or not they change lanes.

■ A yoga loving pensioner returned to the exercise weeks after receiving life-saving drugs.

Harold Davies, of Grange Drive, Thorpe Bay, was the 100th person to benefit from thrombolysing drugs after suffering a paralysing stroke.

The 80-year-old had been practicing various yoga exercises and celebrated his swift recovery by demonstrating his one-legged pose to consultant stroke physician, Dr Paul Guyler. He was allowed home just five days after his paralysing stroke.

FEBRUARY

ENVIRONMENTALLY conscious Southend residents increased the amount of food waste collected to nearly 90 tonnes in January - boosting the recycling rate from 32 per cent last year to almost 50 per cent.

The feat was achieved with the council's new blue bin scheme, which was introduced in September.

Councillor Ian Robertson said: "The amount of food waste collected has been increasing each month and everyone should be very proud of themselves - so thank you very much Southend residents."

■ Two friends were shortlisted for the final of Essex Police Young Person of the Year.

Alex Penn and Moses Burrell (pictured) became best friends at Cecil Jones College and found out they were born within 24 hours of each other and lived three streets apart.

They pair raised £1,200 for the council's Fix It Fund to send 25 underprivileged children to Belchamps for an activity day.

Since then they have thrown themselves into a non-stop round of volunteering projects, including helping elderly residents with their gardens, setting up a talent show, cleaning ambulances, opening a stationery shop for charity, and much more.

■ Schoolkids from Shoebury High got together with police, church, Neighbourhood Watch, youth workers, teachers and a range of local councillors to hold a Q&A session.

The event gave youngsters the opportunity to ask questions about their area and raise any issues of concern.

■ Review of the year 2009

BRAVE: Amy Jarrett with mum, Michelle, and dad, Chris.

MAY

IN MAY, readers heard the story of brave youngster Amy Jarrett from Southend.

Amy urgently needed cash for vital and revolutionary treatment available in China, as she suffers from septo-optic dysplasia - the same condition as Katie Price's son Harvey.

The illness causes blindness, autism and behavioural problems.

Parents Michelle and Chris explained how they discovered the Chinese had been highly successful in treating the illness with umbilical stem cell procedures.

Michelle said: "We just want to give our little girl the chance to be able to see."

Michelle organised a number of events in the following few months to raise cash for Amy, and by the end of November, a generous public had raised the money to send her to China.

Amy and her parents flew out for the treatment in December.

■ MORE than 20 vessels were destroyed in a suspected arson attack on a Leigh Yacht Club.

The blaze, which occurred in the early hours of the morning, caused thousands of pounds worth of damage at Essex Yacht Club, Old Leigh.

Fibreglass dinghies stored on wooden wracks at the club's jetty were destroyed, along with sails and clothing.

■ A PUBLIC meeting was held to discuss proposals for the development of East Beach.

Councillors and members of the Shoebury East Beach Area Action Committee (SEBAC) attended the meeting.

Concerns were voiced regarding the council's plans to 'grasscrete' over the existing parking area, provide barbecue facilities and a lighted path between Shoebury Station and the beach.

Residents were worried that the provision of barbecue facilities without a risk assessment could prove hazardous, and many thought providing a lighted pathway from the station would encourage people to use the beach after dark.

MARCH

A BIRTHDAY celebration ended in tragedy in March when a car ploughed into a group of teenagers in Thorpe Bay, killing 14 year-old Eleanor McGrath and leaving 16 year-old Jack Horton in a permanent vegetative state.

Eighteen partygoers were injured when a red Citroen C1 crashed through a garden wall in Tyrone Road at about 9.45pm.

The car belonged to 17-year-old Ben Gemmell, from Thorpe Bay, who admitted death by dangerous driving and other counts of grievous bodily harm in November.

Gemmell was sentenced to six years behind bars the day before his eighteenth birthday.

■ A doctor's clerk organised a run along Southend seafront to raise awareness about having regular cervical screening.

Christina Phillips, 43, was so moved by the plight of Essex girl Jade Goody, she decided to organise a walk that would raise funds and awareness of the condition.

More than £1,000 was raised for Jo's Trust, and a petition for early screening was passed on to Prime Minister, Gordon Brown.

■ Six young posties who raised £7,500 for Little Havens Children's Hospice were short-listed for a 'first class' award for fundraising.

Sam Harris, Ben Graves, Lewis Peck, Danny Curtis, Ashley Clack and Craig Malloy (pictured) raised the money by holding a football tournament and family fun day.

APRIL

IN APRIL, a mother called for improvements in hospital care for special needs patients after a tribunal ruled her son was neglected before his death.

Martin Ryan, 43, who had Down's syndrome and epilepsy, was admitted to Kingston Hospital in Surrey in 2005 after a stroke.

He was not fed for 26 days.

Vera Ryan, 83, from Shoebury, spoke out after a tribunal backed her claims that poor treatment had contributed towards his death.

She said: "I thought that Martin was in the best possible place, being giving the best care."

"It did not even cross my mind that he wasn't being fed at all."

Martin's death certificate shows the cause of death as pneumonia and stroke. But the Ombudsman's investigation concluded that the hospital trust's failures 'were for disability related reasons'.

The Ryan family were awarded £40,000 compensation.

■ SOUTHEND Hospital was heralded as having one of the best stroke units in the country.

MAGNIFICENT: Southend Hospital physiotherapist Jenna Cook, student physiotherapist Kenoye Igbagiri and patient Muriel Ledger.

The newly refurbished unit officially opened for business this month and now offers stroke sufferers everything they need to recover.

All patients at the hospital can access a fully equipped gym, specially designed to get them back to good health. There is also a newly created garden, which stroke patients can help to cultivate.

Health chiefs at the hospital also said that a new clot-busting drug, Thrombolin, has also helped to cut deaths by around 40 per cent.

■ THE NEW stroke unit played its part when a Canvey woman was saved by her quick-thinking husband.

Christine Arris, 61, of Griffin Avenue, was in the shower when she lost the use of her hand and became unable to speak.

Having suffered a stroke nine years ago, she managed to scrawl S-T-R-O-K-E on a piece of paper.

Her husband Reg had seen the FAST TV adverts stressing the necessity for immediate action in the event of facial, arm or speech weakness and called an ambulance.

Within minutes Christine had arrived at Southend Hospital where she was given a clot-busting (thrombolysis) drug.

Children's centre planned

PLANS to build a children's centre in a Rayleigh school have been submitted.

Essex County Council wants to build a Sure Start centre at Grove Wood Primary School, in part of the school's car park.

The building will include a creche, training room, health room, office and an information drop-in room and will be open from Monday to Saturday, from 8am to 10pm, and 10am to 4pm on Sundays.

Keep 999 calls genuine

AMBULANCE chiefs have urged Essex residents to only make genuine emergency calls following the snowy weather.

The East of England Ambulance Service fear people may call in with non-emergencies and concerns about the icy conditions.

If anyone is in any doubt about whether they need a 999 response, they should ring NHS Direct for advice on 0845 4647 or contact their doctor's surgery.

Calor set to face legal proceedings

CALOR will face legal proceedings following a gas spill on Canvey.

The Health and Safety Executive confirmed it was pressing charges for two alleged safety breaches at its terminal in Haven Road last October.

It is alleged that Calor did not take necessary measures to prevent 163-tonnes of liquefied petroleum gas from leaking.

The firm is also accused of not telling the relevant authorities about the spillage within 24 hours, which it should do by law.

It is alleged Calor took 15 days to report the incident.

Review of the year 2009

JUNE

THE MIDDLE of the year saw the Yellow Advertiser mount a campaign to thwart Southend Hospital's plan to ban all flowers from the wards.

Hundreds of readers supported the 'Save Our Flowers' campaign, and the YA received an overwhelming response from residents slamming the ban.

Unfortunately, hospital bosses refused to listen to Yellow Advertiser readers.

John Gilham, chief executive of Southend Hospital Foundation Trust, pushed ahead with the controversial plan, which he claimed would prevent damage to hi-tech equipment from spillages.

He maintained the hospital's consultation showed that more people agreed with the veto than not.

Southend Hospital planned to remove flowers from wards in June 2008 but made a u-turn on the decision after pressure from the Yellow Advertiser.

Angry dog owners congregated on Thorpe Bay beach to protest against Southend Council's plans to ban dogs from beaches.

More than 100 people and their pooches voiced their opinion at proposals that would see dogs banned from beaches between May 1 and September 30, and in public play areas and sports courts.

Many dog owners pointed out that seaside towns such as Brighton had designated dog-walking beaches and urged the council to re-think their plans in light of public opinion.

Southend Festival Seven took place with a host of events throughout June.

The arts and music celebration was organised by South East Essex College and sponsored by HSBC and Renaissance Southend.

It featured work from final year students at the college, as well as the best exhibitions and shows in the area.

Darth Vader kicked off the celebration of culture by sampling a festival milkshake at 'Shake It' milkshake bar in Southend.

Dave Prowse - Darth Vader in the Star Wars films - was one of three patrons of the 2009 festival.

JULY

A WARM July saw 20 rare avocet chicks being hatched on Two Tree Island, thanks to the support of more than 70 volunteers.

Avocet Watch, organised by Essex Wildlife Trust, was set up after thieves stole eggs in 2004 and 2005.

Volunteers provided round-the-clock surveillance from April until early June to make sure the birds, which are legally protected and listed on the Wildlife and Countryside Act, remained safe.

■ THE BODY of a man washed up on Thorpe Bay beach was identified as missing fisherman Colin Dolby.

The 47-year-old, from Leigh, was missing on November 10, 2008, when his trawler, The Louisa, was caught in a storm.

Mr Dolby's widow, Jane, 43, said the last eight months had been 'nothing short of mental torture for us all'.

■ THE LONG-RUNNING occupation of 'Camp Bling' in Priory Crescent finally ended.

Executive councillor for planning and transport at Southend Council, Anna Waite, confirmed Parklife had left the site.

The protesters returned the East Saxon king's burial site to its former condition, with all structures and materials on the site removed by the group.

Camp Bling campaigner, Ginger, said: "We would like to thank each and every one of the people who have been

AUGUST

IN AUGUST, the family of a Leigh youngster who was killed in a crash in Rawreth paid tribute to their little girl.

Ruth Lambert, of Flemming Avenue, died after the blue Honda she was travelling in crashed on the A130.

A family statement said: "For a short while, our family had been graced with a gift from heaven. Our daughter was the brightest star in the universe and made everybody smile."

■ Southend Council introduced new rules for dog owners to a mixed public reaction.

The orders include keeping dogs on a lead at all times in public places, and other restrictions banned the public from taking out more than four dogs at any one time.

Dogs will also have to stay off beaches from May until September each year.

■ A local parent self-published a book to help parents get their offspring through the minefield that is the 11-Plus exam.

John Barber, 58, explained that the project was born out of necessity because of Southend's selective system.

He said: "Families who are ignorant of the system or socially disadvantaged will always lose out."

SEPTEMBER

SEPTEMBER brought good news for art-lovers who celebrated the opening of Chalkwell Hall, at Chalkwell Park.

The Grade II listed building is now the headquarters of art group, Metal, and will enable artists from Southend, the UK and overseas to develop their talents and share ideas.

Metal's MD Colette Bailey said: "Southend is already home to a great many artistic and cultural industries."

"With the encouragement of Southend Council and our funders, we aim to make Southend the creative capital for the whole of the East of England."

■ A Southend woman was jailed for three years this month after killing her boyfriend.

Police were contacted by the ambulance service shortly after 1.30am on Friday, October 3, 2008, following reports of a stabbing inside a flat on Ashburnham Road.

Officers arrived to find Brian McDonald with a stab wound to his body. The 40-year-old later died, and his girlfriend, Helen Plews was arrested at the house and subsequently charged with one count of murder.

The court heard that Plews had been in an abusive relationship with McDonald for some time and it ended in a drunken fight that saw Plews stab McDonald in the chest.

■ If your dad and granddad are both policemen, what should your birthdate be? 999, of course!

Little Ruby

Melanie Barber was born at Southend University Hospital on Wednesday, September 9, (09/09/09), to proud parents Dee Goodwin and Dan Barber from Shoeburyness.

The arresting bundle of joy arrived by caesarean section, weighing in at a healthy seven pounds 14 ounces.

Dan, 27, has been a PC in Southend for the last four years.

The doting dad said: "With both my dad and I being serving police officers, my little girl could hardly have a more appropriate birthday. It's an incredible coincidence.

Dan's father, Paul, works at police HQ in Chelmsford and became a granddad twice in two days as Dan's sister Laura also gave birth two days before.

BRIGHT FUTURE: Metal MD Colette Bailey with builder Ron Lowe, architect Bill Dunster and Ralph Smith standing under Chalkwell Hall's new energy-producing glass ceiling.

THERE are few luxuries better than a warm and attractive bathroom to add good looks, comfort and value to your home.

For a dream bathroom, you can trust the experts at Essex Showers, who will create an ideal combination at a price you can afford.

Malcolm and Lee Pitt formed the company in 1982, having been employed by a national bathroom company for 13 years before deciding the time was right to branch out.

The firm's reputation has now spread far.

It has more than 5,000 bathroom installations to its credit, and offers a complete service.

Essex Showers installs only brand name bathroom suites such as Armitage Shanks, Ideal Standard and Twyford.

One of the staff will visit, discuss plans, give advice and a quotation for the work.

Installations are carried out by the firm's own fitters all over the county and beyond.

Review of the year 2009

OCTOBER

A YOUNG mother from Leigh spoke of her grief after her partner was left in a coma after a violent gang attack on an Essex train.

Mollie Jones, 17, appealed for witnesses to the assault on May 29, which left her boyfriend seriously injured.

Michael Ogbuehi, 20, from Chalkwell, was attacked on the c2c train just before 10pm as the couple travelled home from Southend.

Mollie was heavily pregnant at the time and has since given birth to their four-month-old baby girl, Ava.

Investigating officers said a large group of youths started punching and kicking Michael between Southend and Chalkwell stations.

He remains in a coma and police are urging anyone who was travelling on the train when the attack took place to contact them with information.

If you know anything, call British Transport Police on 020 7391 5275 and quote reference B4/23/09/2009.

■ A SURPRISE announcement from Southend Council heralded the town's bid to become the first UK Capital of Culture in 2013.

The council, together with regeneration company Renaissance Southend, are hoping the bid will boost the town's regeneration plans and bring more investment and tourism into the area.

■ Review of the year 2009

NOVEMBER

MORE than 750 bank workers at HSBC, Southend, were told that they were being made redundant and that their jobs would be transferred to Birmingham in 2010.

The announcement sparked fury among workers and civic leaders with Rochford and Southend East MP, James Duddridge and Southend West MP David Amess vowing to do all they could to represent those constituents left jobless.

■ A sombre crowd gathered at the cenotaph in Westcliff for the Remembrance Day commemorations.

Wreaths were laid by the Mayor, Councillor Brian Smith, MPs, representatives from faith communities, the emergency services and war veterans.

The service was attended by Westcliff soldier, Sergeant Robert Moore, of the 1st Battalion Royal Anglian Regiment.

The former Belfairs School student was awarded a Military Cross in 2008 for his bravery.

Stacey was found by her mum and brother, having died of Ketosis Acidosis, a condition that occurs when a lack of insulin leads to high blood sugar levels.

Stacey's mum Elaine said: "Stacey was a beautiful, trusting girl who just wanted to be like every other teenager. "Teenagers think they are invincible - but we know to our cost they are not."

■ An exhibition of previously undiscovered photographs of some of the greatest performers of the last millennium went on show in Leigh.

Ex-press photographer Derek Cross stumbled across the photos in a drawer.

All 55 images were taken at the old Odeon Cinema in Southend High Street in 1963, and offer a glimpse into the past with shots of the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, Roy Orbison and Helen Shapiro, among others.

NOSTALGIA: Some of the newly-discovered photographs from 1963.

DECEMBER

DURING Domestic Violence Week, a local charity was keen to let residents know what services are on offer in the area.

SOS Domestic Abuse Projects was formed earlier this year to replace Southend Woman's Aid when their bid to Supporting People to continue operating the four-bedroom refuge was lost.

The organisation still operates the Dove Project - a drop-in centre for women experiencing domestic abuse.

■ A LEIGH music club closed down after 62 years.

Leigh Recorded Music Society decided to cease its fortnightly meetings after figures dwindled to about 30 and attendance dropped.

■ STAFF and pupils at Cecil Jones sent out a defiant message to inspectors - 'Let us show you how good we are'.

That was the call from headteacher Doug Nichols after Ofsted placed his school in special measures.

Concerns were raised after just 37.5 per cent of pupils passed their GCSEs with five A*-C grades.

St Trinian's back to school

St Trinian's 2: The Legend of Fritton's Gold (PG)

THE naughty minxes from St Trinian's are back to their old tricks in a lacklustre sequel to the rambunctious 2007 comedy, involving a preposterous treasure hunt around London in search of stolen 16th-century booty.

Rupert Everett is still a hoot as the toothy headmistress alongside old flame Colin Firth, while Doctor Who David Tennant is the chauvinistic villain. Also stars Sarah Harding of Girls Aloud. ★★

Avatar (12A)

FOUR years after his underwater IMAX documentary Aliens Of The Deep, director James Cameron (Titanic) unleashes his latest special effects-laden blockbuster, which is rumoured to push the boundaries of big-screen technology.

When warmonger Colonel Miles Quaritch (Stephen Lang), decides to attack an alien race, his methods change the face of warfare and the fate of a planet. ★★★★★

Alvin and The Chipmunks 2: The Squeakquel (U)

GIRL power is alive and well in the Chipmunks sequel as Alvin, Simon and Theodore meet their match in three feisty females (voiced by Christina Applegate, Amy Poehler and Anna Faris), who challenge them for battle-of-the-band honours at their new high school.

Director Betty Thomas treads a familiar path, driving a wedge between the tiny animated heroes and then reuniting them for a foot-stomping finale. ★★

Where the Wild Things Are (PG)

SPIKE Jonze's heartbreaking, visually-stunning adaptation of Maurice Sendak's beloved children's story is not a sentimental coming-of-age story viewed through rose-tinted spectacles.

Max Records stars as the boy who feels his single mother and sister don't appreciate him, and escapes into a fantasy world where he is accepted by a race of huge furry creatures called the Wild Things. ★★★★★

Carriers (15)

SIBLINGS Alex and David Pastor write and direct this thriller set in the aftermath of a global pandemic which has devastated the human race.

Lou Taylor Pucci leaves behind his dying parents and heads off with loved ones including Star Trek's Chris Pine and Piper Perabo (Coyote Ugly), facing difficult dilemmas in the diseased world when they meet a stricken man (Law And Order's Christopher Meloni) and his infected daughter. ★★★

The Stepfather (15)

THE Stepfather is a predictable yarn about a wayward teenager who suspects the new man in his mother's life is a psychopath. Dylan Walsh plays the title character with barely concealed malice.

He quickly latches onto divorcee Susan Harding (Sela Ward), but her eldest son Michael (Penn Badgley) is suspicious - and then friends start dying.

Director Nelson McCormick fails to generate any suspense as Michael sneaks around, looking for clues, in this film which unashamedly panders to a teen audience. ★★

Vehicle Dismantlers

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a
DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(D)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by cause beyond their control.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., and there is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
